International Office

The International Office coordinates the international relations of the University of Applied Sciences Schmalkalden and maintains contact to its partner universities and other institutions participating in student and lecturer exchange programmes. The International Office provides information about the possibilities of student-related stays abroad (for studies or internships) and gives advice on their planning and preparation. It is also in charge of the admission of foreign applicants as well as looking after foreign students and guests of the University of Applied Sciences Schmalkalden.
