

Culture

Whether campus cinema, concerts or art exhibitions - on the campus of the University of Applied Sciences Schmalkalden always something is going on.

And if there is a week without any events, the student's club of Schmalkalden is a good opportunity to go to because they provide parties on a regular basis. You can celebrate extensively and relax from your study. Under the links Faculty of business Law and University find useful hints of how to sweeten your student time in Schmalkalden.
